TUESDAY, MARCH 6.

On Sunday Morning, the 25th ult. about two o'clock, the White House Tavern and buildings at the Long Glades, Fairfax County, were destroyed by fire.

The stable was first set fire to, which communicated with the other buildings. Fortunately a negro woman was ironing in the Kitchen, who heard a sudden cackling of the fowls in the stable. On opening the door, the fire was discovered, which raged with great fury. The family were instantly alarmed, who saved part of the goods in the store, and most of their furniture. Three horses were burnt in the stable.

We are happy to hear that the incendiary, a negro, has since been discovered, by dropping a small button half a mile distant.

He is now in the dungeon of the jail of Fairfax, and is to be tried by a special court on Wednesday next, 7th inst.

NEW-YORK, March 1.

LATEST FROM GIBRALTAR.

Last evening arrived at this port the sch'r. Lydia, Reynolds, from Malta and Gibraltar. She left the former place the 12th of November, and the latter the 2d of January.

Capt. Reynolds informed us that it was reported at Gibraltar the day before he sailed, that a French army, of 35,000 men, were marching for Valencia, having taken several towns on their way.

We further learn, that the brig Ohio, of Baltimore, is sent into Tunis by a French privateer and condemned; and the ship Apollo, Bounds, from Baltimore and last from Tunis, is sent into Tunis by a British man of war, and condemned about the 13th of Oct.

Captain D. has favored the editor of the Mercantile Advertiser with a Gibraltar paper of the 30th of December, which is barren of news.

Congress of the United States.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

MONDAY, March 5.

[Taken for the Alexandria Gazette.]

Leave of absence was granted to Mr. Stedman for the remainder of the session.

Mr. Vandyke had leave of absence for one week.

Mr. Eppes from the select committee to whom was referred the amendments of the Senate to Mr. Macon's bill, and the convey bill of Mr. Burwell, reported a bill authorizing the president to grant convey to American vessels laden with the produce of the U. States.

The first section of the bill declares that all American vessels, laden with the growth and manufacture of the U. S. not contraband of war, and owned and navigated by citizens of the U. S. are entitled to convoy.

The 2d section authorizes the President to order the commanders of the armed vessels of the U. S. to convoy merchant vessels loaded and navigated agreeably to the 1st section, and bound to ports not actually blockaded.

The 3d section authorizes the President to instruct the commanders of American armed ships to resist search from the cruisers of Great-Britain and France and to capture and bring into port, such vessels attempting to search vessels under their convoy.

The 4th section declares vessels so taken to be lawful prize.

The 5th section prohibits clearances to vessels not owned, laden and navigated agreeably to the first section.

The 6th section enumerates the articles which shall, under this act, be denominated contraband of war.

The 7th section authorizes the president to establish regulations, and give instructions to the collectors and to the commanders of American armed vessels, respecting the ports to which clearances may be granted.

The 8th section provides that if the decrees and orders of council of Great Britain and France shall be withdrawn, then the provisions of this act shall cease. If one shall be withdrawn and the other continued, then the provisions of this act to cease as respects the power so withdrawing, and to remain in force as it respects the other. Referred to a committee of the whole house to-morrow.

Mr. Eppes, from the same committee, also reported it as their opinion that the house ought to disagree to the amendments of the senate to Mr. Macon's bill.

Some desultory conversation took place relative to the proper mode of putting the question to the house.

The Speaker declared that the question would be, will the house agree to the report of the select committee.

On motion of Mr. Mumford the question was divided. The first question was on the sections from the third to the 11th which the Senate had stricken out. The report of the select committee was that these sections should not be stricken out. The question will the house concur was taken by ayes and noes and carried—Ayes 67—Noes 47.

On the last section the vote was unanimous. All the sections are therefore reinstated, and the bill goes to the Senate in the same words that it was sent up formerly.

On motion of Mr. Poinexter the house took up the resolution which he proposed some days since relative to the Bature at New-Orleans.

ORIGINS FAMILY MEDICINES.

Prepared by RICHARD LEE & SON, who have been in the preparation and general use of these medicines in the United States, for upwards of ten years. And it is no inconsiderable evidence of their utility, that during the above period, numerous imitations of every article, the productions of ignorance and experience, urged by envy and pecuniary, have been intruded on the public, seen for a day, and then perished! Others now succeed them, which in like manner are fast descending to the tomb of the Capulets; while our remedies become more generally used, and acquire a daily accession of deserved celebrity.

Lee's Worm-destroying Lozenges.

This medicine is superior to any ver offered to the public, being innocent and mild certain and efficacious in its operations.—Should no worms exist in the body, it will without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders.

Lee's Elixer.

A certain remedy for colds, coughs, asthma, and particularly the whooping cough, so destructive to children.

Lee's Essence of Mustard,

So well known for the cure of rheumatism, gout, palsy, sprains, &c. &c.

Lee's Grand Restorative,

Proved by long experience to be unequalled in the cure of nervous disorders, consumptions, leanness of spirits, inward weakness, &c.

Lee's Anti-Bilious Pills,

For the prevention and cure of bilious and malignant fevers.

Lee's Sovereign Ointment for the Itch.
Which is warranted an infallible remedy at one application.

Infallible Ague & Fever Drops,
For the cure of agues, remittent, and intermittent fevers.

Lee's Genuine Perfian Lotion,
Celebrated for the cure of ring worms, tetter, &c.

Lee's Genuine Eye Water.
An effectual remedy for all diseases of the eyes.

Tooth-ache Drops.
Which give immediate relief.

Lee's Damask Lip Salve.

Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

The Anodyne Elixir,
For the cure of every kind of head-ache.

The Indian Vegetable Specific,
For the cure of venereal complaints.

Those medicines having come into general use, they are frequently purchased not only by Druggists, but by country store keepers to sell again; in order that the purchasers may be confident they have the original genuine medicines; wherever they purchase they have but to observe, that every article of medicine has on the outward wrapper the signature of the proprietors.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE subscriber, after a lapse of time necessarily consumed in the preparation of his house, respectfully announces to the citizens of Alexandria, as well as the community at large, that he has taken for a term of years that noted and eligible establishment known by the name of the CITY HOTEL, and once occupied by Mr. Gadsby, whose distinguished abilities as a Publican gave it an eclat which the subscriber hopes to preserve by his unremitting exertions in affording to all those who may confer on him the favor of their patronage, genteel and comfortable accommodations. The subscriber deems it unnecessary to indicate the multiplicity of conveniences attached to the City Hotel, and will only submit a description to that portion of travellers who have so generally attested its numerous advantages.

A NEW NOVEL.

Just Published, and for Sale by COTTON & STEWART,
Price 1 Dollar,
GLENCARN;

OR THE DISAPPOINTMENTS OF YOUTH, A NOVEL.

By GEORGE WATTERSTON, Esq.
OF WASHINGTON CITY,
Author of the Lawyer and Child of Feeling.

The celebrity of this author's "LAWYER," and "CHILD OF FEELING" induced the publishers to engage in this work, and without detracting from the merits of the former, feel themselves justified in stating that his GLENCARN is superior to either. It is submitted without further recommendation, with a wish, that the American reviewers may give further encouragement to this young gentleman's endeavors to entertain instruct and moralize his fellow citizens, in a way seemingly well calculated to attract their attention.

Inkerton's Collection of Voyages and Travels.

Forming a complete History of the Origin and Progress of Discovery by Sea and Land, from the most authentic Sources.

THE first number of this valuable Work is just come to hand and is ready for inspection at the store of the subscriber, in King-street, and with Mr. Trippe's at the coffee-house.

Fully aware of the impositions that have been practised upon the public by strangers soliciting subscriptions from distant places; the Editors invite their examination of a Work perhaps the most useful, entertaining as well as extensive in its kind that has ever been undertaken in any country. And they flatter themselves that the American will by no means shrink from a comparison with the London edition, tho' offered at six dollars per Vol. less.

This number may be considered as a full specimen of the execution of the work, and will be left a short time for examination before the 2d number is put to press. After this the subscription will be raised to $2 25 each number; and but a few more copies printed than are sufficient to supply the subscribers, that the early patrons of this valuable Work may have a decided advantage—subsequent applications may therefore come too late.

It is also the intention of the Editor to annex to the last number a complete list of names of the subscribers; as the patrons and encouragers of useful knowledge, the arts and literature of the United States.

Subscriptions are received by the subscriber.

Valuable Property for Sale.

I will sell the PLANTATION known by the name of MOUNT AIR, lying in the state of Virginia, immediately on the post road, about 9 miles from Alexandria. This farm contains upwards of seven hundred acres, the soil is well adapted for wheat, corn or tobacco—there are on the farm two houses, one of which is a commodious dwelling with a good kitchen, and the other is a two story building 32 feet square, shingled and weather boarded but not finished inside, it is situated immediately on the post road and is an excellent stand for a tavern. Mr. Edgar McGarty, of Cedar Grove, who resides near this property, will on application shew it to any person desirous of purchasing.

I will also sell that valuable property known by the name of McCarty's Island, in the Potomac river, about 20 miles above George-Town—this island contains upwards of three hundred acres, the soil is equal in quality to any land in the western country, and is surpassed by none for valuable timber for house and ship building, only about 30 acres are cleared. A further description is deemed unnecessary as it is presumed that any person wanting to purchase will view it. Mr. James Middleton, who lives near this island, will shew it on application. For the above described lands a great bargain will be sold on application to the subscriber residing in George Town.
